

Your trusted business partners

Welcome to our latest JDW newsletter. In this edition, we talk about issues for content creators and how to get PIE tax overpayments refunded.

Taxing Content Creators

We have a growing number of clients who create digital content: copy writers, influencers, reviewers, marketers. We see their work in Facebook, Tiktok, Instagram, YouTube, Pinterest...

Do you create social media content? IRD wants to clarify how influencers and other content creators are taxed. We have summarised how this is a very complicated area for taxpayers. The Deadline for making submissions is 1 June 2021 (tomorrow). Read our article here.

Getting your slice of the investment PIE income

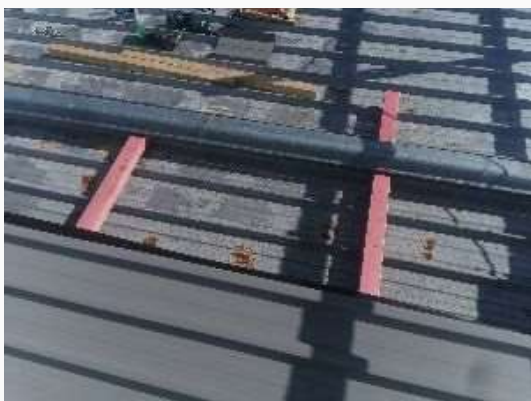

If you overpaid your PIE tax on investments, you can now get a refund of the overpayment. Read more here.

JDW News

Last week we farewelled Kimberly, who started with us as a graduate six years ago. We will miss her radiant smile and helpfulness around the office. This week we also welcomed Chan, whose experience and Chinese language skills will assist our clients.

After several days of clanging and hammering, we have a new roof over our office, just in time for winter. Nice one, thanks guys.

We'd like to bring you our newsletter more frequently and we welcome suggestions from you, our clients. Do you have a business story that you'd like to share, an event, product or service that could help our other clients? Would you like more knowledge about accounting or tax? Please send your suggestions to serenai@jdw.co.nz
